His Highness Col.Sir Sri Krishnaraja Wodayar Bahadur

G.C.S.I.

Maharaja of Mysore.

May it please your Highness.

It is well known to your Highness that D.M.Narasinga Rao has proved himself a traitor and as such he is playing humbug at Bangalore having nothing to do on hand at present being kicked out from Nabha for bad character. He is now loafing about at Bangalore and anxiously waiting for Mr. Banarji who is his intimate friend.Mr.D.M.N. wants to throw his gauntlet and see what all mischief he could play with the present Government and thus wreak his vengence.He seems to have got aplan ready tosee the downfall of the present administration and make Mr.Banerji the future Dewan of Mysore.Your Highness may not doubt this statement as you may be well aware that he was instumental to the downfall of previous Dewans. He wanted to see Mr. Banerji suceed SirM.Visvesvaraya but it missed his stratagem as he was out at Nabha State, just then.By saying so Your Highness may not misunderstand me as yourHighness is powerless. It is not so .D.M.N.would single handed play a good deal of mischief and strengthened with the able support of Mr.Banerji it can be immagined what all is possible by two hands combined together both having only one goal to hit. It is strange that Mr. Narasingarao is allowed to move in Govt.tonga andm motars. He is jubillantovfer Mr.Banerji's arrival.

The present Dewan is too weak to bear the mischief of such tyrants.In case Mr.Banerji is to be the 1st.Councillor the Dewan's position will be quite unsafe.

Mr.Banerji requires a pukka rider to govern him.Mr. Visveswaraya himself felt his position tottering at times .The present Dewan is not firm -minded as he gets confounded and funky whenever there is slight opposition on the part of councillors or any other high officers. One or two instances will clearly show how this statement could be verified.

Yours Highness may be aware of the present aggitation in the Dewan's office by the Secretariat clerks.This could have been easily put down by stating that their grievance would be soon remidded by commandeering the food-stuffs. The appointment andtransfer qwestions are often left to the choice of subordinates not to speak of promotions. There are also instances in which the Dewan has failed to keep up his word owing to certain technicalities in his way. He must ~~have moral~~ courage to withstand all impediments inhis way.This is the opinion expressed by Mr. D.M.N. to his friends and as such he thinks that he could easily see his way to the ruination of the present Govt. having the next highest man in his pocket.
It is in the interest of the present Govt.that this is all.s-said and it is believed that Your Highness will be pleased to take early action in this urgent matter.

Your Highness's most loyal ~~and~~ obedient,
and humble servent.
